

Jordan Nittinger Polce

Associate

Frederick, MD

T: 301-732-4454

E: jnittinger@mcneeslaw.com

Services and sector groups

- Corporate and Tax
- Construction

Jordan advises businesses on mergers and acquisitions, financing transactions, corporate governance, and general corporate matters.

She supports clients through each stage of a transaction, including due diligence, negotiation, documentation, and closing. Her experience includes commercial finance, capital markets, bankruptcy-related matters, and equity and venture capital transactions.

Before joining the firm, Jordan practiced corporate law at a Global 100 firm, where she gained experience in large-scale corporate transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, equity, and venture capital.

Education

- Emory University School of Law, J.D.
- The University of Alabama, B.A., communication and information sciences, summa cum laude

Admissions

- Maryland