

Sara Reohr

Chief Financial Officer

Harrisburg, PA

T: 717-237-5250

E: sreohr@mcneeslaw.com

Sara leads McNees' strategic financial initiatives, collaborating with the firm's leadership team to achieve long-term financial goals, including optimizing resource allocation, implementing cost-saving measures, driving operational efficiencies, and positioning the firm for sustained growth.

She brings financial leadership experience from the healthcare sector, where she oversaw revenue growth, organizational scale, process improvements, large teams, regulatory compliance, and financial controls. Her background in public accounting informs her focus on sound business controls, clear financial reporting, and practical decision-making.

Certifications

- Certified Public Accountant

Education

- The Pennsylvania State University, BS in accounting, magna cum laude