

McNees Personal Injury Law Group

The Personal Injury team at McNees Wallace & Nurick is committed to helping individuals receive fair and full compensation for their physical and emotional injuries caused by another's negligence or carelessness. We understand that the time after an accident is often one of the most challenging and frightening that an individual or family will ever experience. For that reason, personal injury clients at McNees Wallace & Nurick receive the same Client's 1st approach and representation that McNees has been providing to the community for more than 80 years.

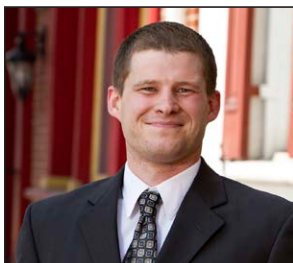

At McNees, we practice Personal Injury differently than other firms. We provide unique legal representation to our clients so that their life-altering tragedies can be handled in what Central Pennsylvania has come to know as the "McNees" way. We believe that the focus should be on you, the client. We do not advertise on billboards or on television. Instead, we focus our time and efforts on you and on getting you the compensation that you deserve. From the very first meeting, you will receive personal and prompt attention from the McNees team. We will meet you wherever you would feel the most comfortable: at our offices; in your home; or, at the hospital if you are unable to travel. With McNees, you are represented by not just one Personal Injury attorney, but by the entire Firm and the top legal minds in the Commonwealth. You will always have access to and the support of the entire McNees team. As a result, McNees has attorneys who can assist you with any possible issue related to your Personal Injury claim, including estate issues, tax questions, and insurance coverage disputes.

Among the wide variety of Personal Injury cases and issues that we have litigated and resolved are:

- ATV Accidents
- Autonomous Vehicle Technology Issues
- Bicycle Accidents
- Car Accidents
- Commercial Vehicle/Truck Accidents
- Dog Bites/Attacks
- Drunk Driving Accidents
- Industrial Accidents
- Injuries to Minors
- Lien Recovery
- Medicare/Medicaid Coverage and Resolution Issues
- Pedestrian Accidents
- Premises Liability
- Products Liability
- Wrongful Death.

Our results could speak for themselves, as the Personal Injury team at McNees Wallace & Nurick has been responsible for securing some of the highest personal injury trial verdicts and settlements in Central Pennsylvania over the last 10 years. These results include multi-million-dollar awards throughout Central Pennsylvania, from Adams County to Dauphin County and across to Lebanon County.

JAMES J. FRANKLIN, CHAIR
717.237.5375 / jfranklin@mcneeslaw.com

In his Personal Injury practice, James focuses on helping individuals and families who have suffered personal tragedies and resulting injuries due to the negligence of others. His background as a trial attorney and counselor have made him optimally positioned to help people who are experiencing the most vulnerable moments of their lives. James helps guide his clients through their emotional and physical recoveries and assists them through the litigation process, with the singular goal of getting his clients the recovery they need in order for them to get back on their feet. He represents individuals and families throughout Pennsylvania, in both federal and state courts, and through mediations and arbitrations. James strongly believes in a collaborative and team-oriented approach with his clients, and thus he actively involves his clients in every step of the recovery and litigation processes.

KIANDRA D. BAIR
717.237.5482 / kbair@mcneeslaw.com

Kiandra represents clients in all types of commercial disputes including representing corporations and business owners in litigation involving contracts, employment law and real estate. In addition, Kiandra focuses on representing individuals in Personal Injury matters who have endured physical and mental injuries caused by another's negligence or carelessness. Kiandra's experience with litigation, coupled with her commitment to McNees' Clients 1st approach, uniquely situates her to represent clients during their most vulnerable and challenging times while advocating for the lawful compensation they deserve.

As a committed volunteer, in 2016, Kiandra participated in the Clemency Project 2014 where she successfully represented an incarcerated individual who received clemency from former President Barack H. Obama. She is also an active participant with the Lancaster-based Children Deserve a Chance Foundation (Attollo) and is a member of the Board of Directors of Assets of Lancaster and the Junior Board of Girls on the Run of Lancaster.

ALICIA KOGUT, P.A.C.P.
PARALEGAL
717.237.5323 / akogut@mcneeslaw.com

Alicia, a Pennsylvania certified paralegal, provides assistance to attorneys in the Litigation Department. Alicia has expanded her litigation knowledge with experience in personal injury, financial services, defense litigation and eminent domain. She maintains contact with clients throughout the case and works to make the litigation process a smooth experience. Alicia works closely with the attorneys in the department by obtaining and analyzing medical records, strategy meetings, trial preparation, assisting with discovery, drafting of court documents, filing of documents in all state and federal court systems, and general management and organization of cases. Alicia has been with McNees since 2007.

